"Purple-colored, it delivers a fragrant, complex bouquet of wood smoke, spices, black cherry, blackberry, and blueberry. On the palate, notes of chocolate and sandalwood emerge accompanied by a layered, savoury wine with tons of fruit, a forward personality, and exceptional depth and concentration. Drink this outstanding effort from 2011 to 2020. BenMarco is the label of Pedro Marchevsky, one of the more prominent viticulturalists in Argentina."

"Dark and rich, with fig sauce, black tea, cocoa and plum notes running along the very toasty palate. Thickly layered on the finish, with vivid raspberry fruit and minerality that should emerge with cellaring. Malbec, Cabernet Sauvignon, Syrah, Petit Verdot and Tannat. Best from 2009 through 2013. 700 cases made."
