“Purple-coloured, it offers an attractive toasty nose with notes of black cherry. Medium-bodied and elegant, it is smooth-textured, ripe and concentrated with enough silky tannin to allow several years of development. It should drink well through 2020. Owner Pedro Marchevsky, the husband of Susana Balbo, is a renowned viticulturist in Mendoza.”

— Wine Advocate # 174, December 2007

Beautiful, deep purple colour with aromas of ripe red fruits and roasted coffee beans. Lush, full-bodied and penetrating on the palate with loads of chewy, currant jam flavours and bright acidity.

Pairs well with a wide range of foods including beef, sausages, spiced or grilled pork, veal, medium-strong cheeses and pasta sauces.
