90 points Robert Parker

“This estate, run by Regis and Bruno Boisson, needs to be watched carefully, as they have emerged in a serious fashion with their 2006’s. Slightly richer and fuller than the regular bottling is the 2006 Cairanne L’Exigence, which is deep, medium to full-bodied, with beautifully sweet strawberry and black cherry fruit intermixed with licorice and crushed Provencal herbs. This wine should drink well for 6-7 years.”
