89 points Robert Parker

"The 2005 Syrah-Bonarda (50% of each) is purple coloured with an expressive nose of pepper, spice box, and blueberry. On the palate, the wine is supple-textured and easy-drinking with plenty of vibrant, spicy, ripe dark fruits, soft tannins, and a fruit-filled finish. All of the Crios wines are outstanding values.."

—Robert Parker's "The Wine Advocate", December 2007

Dark reddish/purple color. Intense aroma of black raspberries. This medium-bodied, very lively wine has loads of ripe red plum and black raspberry flavours with a slightly spicy character and a long, juicy finish. This 2005 vintage has a depth of flavor and intensity on the palate that is almost unheard of for wines at this price. Certainly enjoyable in its youth, but will age beautifully.
