“This family-owned winery in Navarra, in the foothills of the Pyrenees has become one of the leading sources of terrific wine values. As I have reported in previous issues, these wines are a must for those seeking to maximize their purchasing power. This estate, perennially chosen as producing some of the world's greatest wine values, Bodegas Nekeas has fashioned wine that must be tasted to be believed.”

— Robert Parker/Wine Advocate # 141 & # 117

“Bodegas Nekeas continues to offer wines of exceptional value. The 2007 Rosé is equal parts Cabernet and Garnacha. Light pink-colored, it has a fragrant perfume of red currants, cherry, and rose petals. This leads to a light to medium-bodied dry wine with savoury flavours, good balance, and a fruity finish. It is a superb value.” —Wine Advocate #178, Aug 2008

Good as an aperitif or with lighter dishes, remarkably versatile with a wide range of food. Excellent companion to traditional pinchos and tapas. Serve at 8-12° C.
