“This family-owned winery in Navarra, in the foothills of the Pyrenees has become one of the leading sources of terrific wine values. As I have reported in previous issues, these wines are a must for those seeking to maximize their purchasing power. This estate, perennially chosen as producing some of the world’s greatest wine values, Bodegas Nekeas has fashioned wine that must be tasted to be believed.”

— Robert Parker/Wine Advocate # 141 & # 117

A medium-bodied red wine with mineral-accented redcurrant and cherry on the nose, and herbal qualities that add complexity. On the palate, firm ripe black cherry and berry fruit flavours offer good structure and fine, rich purity. Gentle tannins and a supple and silky texture lead to a harmonious finish of juicy cherry and licorice flavours, with good length.

Great on its own, and pairs well with a wide range of foods including game, poultry, beef, grilled pork, cheeses and pasta sauces. Excellent companion to traditional pinchos and tapas. Serve at 14-16° C.
